

EIA studies performed by the experts of GEO considers various alternatives and selection of best and suitable one to avoid negative impacts supposed to be caused by the project development. The alternatives takes into consideration of life cycle assessment and alternatives in process, location, route, technology, type of substances and materials, type of energy, etc.