

Our comprehensive marine environmental services, which meet recognized industry and international standards of practice, include the following:

- General marine sampling (water and sediment)
- Chemical and biological sampling and surveys
- Ecological Risk Assessments
- Marine Environmental Assessments
- Mitigation habitat and resource mapping and monitoring
- Fate and effects modeling of oil spills