

GEO is committed to embracing modern technology and providing clients with state of the art environmental input and practical and innovative solutions. We provide leadership in environmental strategy formulation and stakeholder partnership in solving environmental problems. We apply environmental laws with integrity and fairness in the process of conducting environmental due diligence assessment and evaluation and identifying environmental risks and formulating mitigation measures. We take a hands-on approach to help clients achieve the results they want.