

Studies include the review and knowledge base of Integrated Coastal Zone Management Practices followed around the world with due consideration to the local geographic and environmental situations. Studies recommended in CZM give importance to the preservation of natural coastal morphology area and sustained exploitation of coasts for facilities such as:

- Coastal Urban and Residential
- Ports and Marinas
- Petrochemical facilities
- Entertainment and hospitality
- Real Estates
- Artificial Islands and lagoons